Session: Expert Opinions in Criminal Court

Jeff Feix earned his Ph.D. in clinical psychology from the University of Kentucky and completed an internship at the Harvard Medical School in 1989. He came to Tennessee as the Director of Forensic and Juvenile Court Services for the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services in July of 2007. His office coordinates the provision of court-ordered mental health evaluations for general sessions, criminal, circuit and juvenile courts across Tennessee. Previously, he worked in the public sector as a therapist, a forensic psychologist and a sex offender treatment provider in Massachusetts and Virginia. He has served as Chair of the executive committee of the Forensic Division of the National Association of Mental Health Program Directors.
