

Ralf Habermann, MD MMHC

Session: Medical Directorship in Long Term Care- Changing Rules, Changing Roles

Ralf Habermann, MD, MMHC is an internist and geriatrician at Vanderbilt University. He went to medical school in Berlin Germany, did his residency at Brown University, and joined Vanderbilt's faculty in 1996. He is board certified in Internal Medicine, Geriatrics, and Hospice & Palliative Care and has a Master of Management in Health Care from Owen School of Business.

He is the Medical Director of the Vanderbilt University Hospital Acute Care for the Elderly (ACE) unit as well as a practicing internist and geriatrician. In addition, he is the Medical Director of Bethany and Trevecca Health and Rehab Centers, Mur-Ci Homes, and Gentiva Hospice Nashville.

He serves on the Boards of Fifty Forward, the AMDA Foundation, and AHC.

He is a member of the Statewide Planning and Policy Council of the Tennessee Department of Developmental and Intellectual Disabilities.

He is the president of the Tennessee Association of Long Term Care Physicians

He lives in Nashville with his wife, Manju, and his 2 sons, Chris and Julian.